Buddina State School Ramp Jam Skateboard Competition

Proudly supported by

Do you have the next Arisa Trew, Chloe Covell or Keegan Palmer?
Buddina State School will again host our highly successful Buddina Ramp Jam skate contest. Each year the standard of skating just keeps getting better. Our contest is a great way for groms to have a safe and friendly entry into the skate contest arena.

HERE'S HOW IT WORKS

The contest is open to keen skaters who are used to safely using ramps and performing tricks. There will be 3 divisions with a maximum number of skaters in each division.

Division 1: Boys year 1 to 3 at school
Division 2: Girls year 1 to 6 at school
Division 3: Boys year 4 to 6 at school

Positions in the competition are limited.
Registration on the Live Heats website will open on Friday 16th October
Contest will be held Friday 20th November

Follow the link to enter your skater in their division
https://liveheats.com/events/572168/registration

1. Consent form- fill out and email to Peter Macmichael pmacm1@eq.edu.au Ensure you use "Skate Comp consent " in the subject field or bring it on the day.

Entries close as soon as divisions are full. If the division is closed you may enter the reserve list and if a position becomes available it will be given to students in order of the reserve list.

Many prizes to be won and handed out randomly, each competitor will also get a hat on the day.

Essential Equipment: All competitors must have and wear the following equipment at all times whilst they skate at this facility.

1. Helmet
2. Wrist Guards
3. Elbow Guards
4. Knee Guards

Any skater without this equipment will not be allowed to skate.
